HOW TO USE THIS REPORT

We started KINXLIST out of the process of negotiating a contract. "What are your hard limits? soft limits?" "How do you feel about this?" "What about that?" So, we started using a paper checklist, and then we thought ... well, shouldn't this be digital? So, we made a spreadsheet, and finally, we KINXLIST was born.

WE FOUND THAT OUR COMMUNICATION IMPROVED DRAMATICALLY.

By talking about specific acts instead of vague ideas or "preferences", we were able to understand each other so much better, and so much faster. Because we were able to negotiate both faster and more clearly, we could stay SAFE, SANE, AND CONSENSUAL... and we could get a contract in place and start playing that much sooner.

SO HERE'S OUR SUGGESTION:

If you have a partner in mind already: Share this report with your partner(s). Talk it over. Start a conversation. Help them understand why you've answered the way you've answered. Just having a hard limit, or an essential need, expressed clearly is a start, but the real question is why. If your partner understands why you've answered the way you have, they'll have a much better understanding of how you can enjoy each other. And then, get their list from them, and do the same thing in reverse.

If you don't have a partner you feel comfortable sharing this with: Self-knowledge is a wonderful thing! Try asking yourself questions. "Why do I feel this way about this act?" "What does this mean to me?" Your answers can help you in the process of finding an ideal partner to play with, as you explore your potential compatibility.

AS ALWAYS, STAY SAFE, AND HAVE FUN!

Sincerely - The Kinx Team
